Situation Arising Over Killing of U. S. Naval Officer

AMBASSADOR CALLS

Official Statement From Tokio Shows
Sentry Was First to Fire—Sentry
To Be Tried

Washington, Jan. 14.—Notification that the Japanese commanding officer at Vladivostok had given orders that hereafter sentries must not challenge Americans and the formal expression of regret by the Japanese Government, went far yesterday toward adjusting the situation which has arisen over the fatal shooting by a Japanese soldier at that port of Lieut. W. H. Langdon, of the cruiser Albany.

The action of the Vladivostok commander, General Oki, was reported to the Navy Department by Admiral Gleaves, commander in chief of the Asiatic Fleet, who was on his way to Vladivostok to conduct a personal investigation. The Admiral added that the report had been sent to him by radio and that in view of developments he had abandoned his trip of inquiry.

Ambassador Shidehara, of Japan, called upon Acting Secretary of State Davis late yesterday and expressed the deep regret of his Government that such an incident should have occurred. Earlier, he had received from the Japanese Foreign Office a version of the shooting which differed from an earlier and equally official version issued in Tokio, in that the Embassy's account agreed with Lieutenant Langdon's statement that the sentry was the first to fire.

The attitude of the Japanese Government also was indicated in the communication to Admiral Gleaves, which said that high officials of the Japanese force had expressed their sorrow and regret. Among those mentioned was Vice Admiral Kawahara.

Secretary of the Navy Daniels, who had called upon Admiral Gleaves for a report, conferred with Secretary Davis yesterday in an effort to expedite so far as possible the gathering of the facts in the case. The latter immediately instructed Consul McGowan, from whom the first official news of the incident had come, to supplement his report, and declared that if the facts warranted an immediate and energetic protest would be made to Japan. Later developments, however, are understood to have inclined officials to believe that the situation is in prospect of final adjustment.

RAIDS OF CLUB HOUSES

PASS UP COSTLY LOOT

Lewistown, Pa., Jan. 14.—A series of most peculiar raids took place Wednesday night among the club-houses west of here on the Juniata River.

The "Juniatas," owned by W. H. Basley at Ryde, and those by the Wolfs, Sillers and Fasic families, of Altoona, were broken into and thoroughly ransacked, but not a thing taken so far as can be learned. The raiders passed up valuable guns and fishing tackle.

The Bell Crown schoolhouse, east of Newtown, Hamilton, was broken into and nothing taken but a few lead pencils from the children's desks. The thief killed a valuable dog for George Wagner, a farmer on the upper Jenkins farm, and after the dog was dead removed the license tag.

LECTURE ON BAGDAD

"Bagdad and the Near East," is the subject of the lecture by Dr. John C. Archer, of Yale University, at the Young Peoples' Building tonight at 8:15.

Dr. Archer holds the Chair of Missions and Missionary Education at Yale, but has lived much of his life in the Near East, being at one time a missionary in India.

During the war, on leave of absence from Yale, he served in Mesopotamia, in charge of education of the British forces there, under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A.

Bagdad is still a name to stir the imagination and this lecture includes intimate sketches of the life of the Near Eastern people, and will portray the mystery and charms of this fascinating country.

The lecture is under the auspices of Section B, of the Woman's Auxiliary of St. Paul's Church, and the proceeds will be given to the Near East Relief Fund.

Free Pictures

Special Show Tomorrow at 3 p. m. at Westminster Building

Free moving pictures for the youngsters is the latest announcement of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. This has been made necessary by the number of younger folks that wish to see the movies shown at the Saturday night community socials, and a special show will be put on for them Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, at the Westminster Building.

The evening community gathering is for young people over fifteen years of age and the afternoon show will take care of those under that age. The films shown will be adapted to youngsters and the afternoon showing will be distinctly a youngsters show and will begin promptly at 3 o'clock and only one run will be made.

The Saturday evening social will have the pictures first and the rest of the evening will be devoted to a check shuffle board tournament, the young ladies competing against the young men for prizes. Free refreshments will be served and doubtless these popular entertainments by the Ladies Auxiliary will become even more popular than before the holidays, when they had such a large and enthusiastic attendance.

HARDING FOR WORLD DISARMAMENT

Friends of 'President-Elect Expect Early Move for Conference

TIME OPPORTUNE

Reduction in Expenses Seem as Help to Debtors—Nations—Promise in Campaign.

Washington, Jan. 14.—It was intimated here yesterday by friends of Senator Harding that his first move in the direction of new international relations, after Congress has declared by joint resolution that war with Germany is at an end, will be the dispatch of a note to the powers asking them to join the United States in a general conference, the purpose of which will be the reduction of armaments.

It is said the President-elect has become profoundly impressed with opportunity now existing to bring into an accord upon this subject. With virtually all nations staggering under heavy national debts and burdensome taxation, and with the world weary of war, Mr. Harding is believed to feel that now is the accepted time to press for a gradual but effective reduction in the war-making machines of the world.

It is added, however, that the President-elect has as yet no clear idea of the methods he will employ to arouse interest of the associated powers in his proposal. He may communicate direct with them or he may publicly propose an international conference, at the same time asking other governments to participate.

One suggestion heard yesterday was that Mr. Harding's initial move might be the dispatch of notes to France and to Great Britain, embodying an invitation to deliberate with the United States over possible disarmament measures, with particular reference to naval programs. If this step should result favorably, then other powers would be requested to go into the whole question of disarmament.

In this connection, it is said, Mr. Harding may remind Great Britain that disarmament affords a means of economy which may make it far easier for the debtor nations to repay what they owe. The question of European indebtedness to America is one to which Mr. Harding is said to have given much thought and about which he feels a large measure of concern.

Mr. Harding said repeatedly during the campaign that League of Nations or no League of Nations, he hoped for future disarmament, although as frequently declaring that until this hope could be realized, it was the plain duty of the United States to maintain an adequate navy. He also frequently declared that some business like understanding must be reached with the debtor nations as to the repayment of the money they borrowed from the United States in the prosecution of the war.

Already there is a pronounced sentiment in Congressional circles for some definite and effective move toward disarmament. Every time an appropriation committee of the House and Senate sits down to work out an economy scheme it finds itself confronted with the enormous demand for money for the army, for the navy and for other purely war enterprises. There can be no decisive reduction in appropriations, it has been found, so long as a strong army and a powerful navy must be maintained.

Although the Senate has thus far shown no pronounced eagerness to adopt the Borch resolution looking to a paval holiday, much of the disinclination to pass this measure is due to an unwillingness of Republican leaders to complicate disarmament matters on the eve of a new administration. Most Senators, it is believed, would be glad to go along with Mr. Harding, however, if he should make a move in the direction of reduced armaments.

Camp Lee As Site

Urged for Virginia Guardsmen—
Make Tour of Inspection

Definite steps toward having the War Department preserve a part of Camp Lee for the use of Virginia National Guard were taken yesterday when a committee, under instructions from Governor Davis, visited the camp, made a thorough inspection of the premises and discussed the matter with the commanding officer, Colonel Barthe.

The committee, which consisted of Adjutant General Jo Lane Stern, Colonel J. Palmer Bright, commander of the First Virginia Regiment, Major William H. Gill, Federal inspector, and Colonel LeRoy Hodges, aid to the Governor and ordinance officer of the Virginia National Guard, was entirely satisfied with the results of the trip and believes there is a good chance of saving a part of the historic war camp.

Colonel Barthe and Captain Robert S. Beard, camp quartermaster, showed the party of officers every courtesy in taking them over the site and furnishing all information that bears on the matter under consideration. It is understood that both Colonel Barthe and Major General Adelbert Cronkrite, commander of this district, look with favor upon the proposal of the State officers and will do everything they can to help in the matter.

A committee within a short time will go to Washington for an interview with Secretary of War Baker, whom they will urge to reconsider the determination of the department to salvage Camp Lee in its entirety and to approve the proposal to save a part of it for use by Virginia troops. State officers are asking that enough of it be allotted for this purpose to take care of the National Guardsmen in what ever maneuvers they make make from time to time, and to serve as a nucleus for another big war camp, should universal military training become effective or another training emergency arise calling for the mobilization of a large number of troops. One thousand acres, with buildings and equipment, it is believed, would suffice. Should Virginia, because of her increased population, be given an additional Congressman, it will mean that she will have about 17,000 guardsmen.

Officers point to the fact that the government cannot hope to secure now anything like what the property at Camp Lee is really worth, and the suggestion they make would allow officials the opportunity not only to furnish an excellent site for National Guard maneuvers but to keep in reserve a good nucleus for military mobilization in the future. The Chamber of Commerce of Richmond is backing the proposal and other civic bodies in the state are expected to use their influence on its behalf.

Public Installation

Court of the Independent Order of Foresters

The evening was spent, in addition to the installation ceremony, with music and an able and instructive address by Hon. D. W. Gall, of Washington, last Friday.

Assistant District Attorney F. G. Duval presided and made a very interesting talk.

H. S. Carpenter, S. D. C. E., of West Virginia, acted as the installer officer. Mr. Carpenter now has his offices in Washington and has charge of the District of Columbia and Virginia as Supervisor of the Independent Order of Foresters.

The lesson to be drawn from the address of Mr. Gall, was the beauties arising from home protection, as afforded by the life insurance for the benefit of the home.

Mr. Gall spent over 18 years in the insurance field, in all classes of the insurance business, as general manager. Before he gave up the work to render service in the war work, and his address was so appreciated, that a rising vote of thanks was given him, for his able and instructive address.

FORTUNE VANISHES AS "WILL" IS OPENED

Officials of Anne Lee Memorial Home Find Canard

DONE OFFICIALLY

Reputed Fortune For Home Contains One Blotter and Two Railroad Schedules—Seal Broken by Judge

Officials of the Anne Lee Memorial Home and court officials were badly sold when they opened a will this morning supposed to be the last will and testament of an old lady who died in Bloomington, Ill., which was supposed to have contained a bequest of $120 in cash and also a large fat juicy life insurance policy. Instead, however, much to the disgust of all concerned it explained one badly worn blotter and two railroad time tables.

It is a rather queer story. A man whose identity is unknown called several days ago at the home and directed that the large official looking envelope that he had heavily sealed be turned over to the president of the home. The paper was given the matron and the matron in turn had the supposed will delivered to Mrs. L. E. Uhler, president of the home.

Written on the face of the envelope were instructions, that the will be opened at 1 o'clock yesterday in the presence of certain persons named therein. Several of the officials of the home gathered there for that purpose. However, others who had been requested by the testatrix and who had been summoned failed to put in their appearance.

Everything must be done in true legal form and now the officials wishing to carry out the wishes of the generous benefactor of the home deemed it unwise to open the will without consulting the court. Postponement was unanimously agreed upon.

It was decided to have the court open the will and officials accompanied by an attorney shortly after 11 o'clock this morning appeared before Judge Robinson Moncreux in the corporation Court and after explaining the matter to the court the judge decided it would not be improper to open it.

Everyone stood breathless as the judge ripped open the big envelope and they were sad indeed when it was found to contain only a blotter and two railroad time tables.

The affair caused much merriment among court officials and others when the story leaked out, and it was the source of considerable chagrin to the officials of the home. The images of the home they say cannot thrive on blotters and railroad time tables.

MIDNIGHT PARADE BLOCKED

Philadelphia, Jan. 14.—Superintendent of Police Mills denied yesterday that he knew of radical plans for a night of bombing and terrorism in Philadelphia.

"The people of Philadelphia need not be afraid to go to bed tomorrow night," said the superintendent. "There won't be any bomb outrages. The facts are these: A demonstration was planned for last night, but it was not by any means an anarchist one. The plans called for a meeting at midnight of the unemployed, and a parade through the streets."

"We learned of the plan and took proper precautions. The principal action was to send extra details of reserve patrolmen to all station houses. Those who were planning the demonstration learned that they had called the demonstration off. There won't be any demonstration now."

9 PROPERTY OWNERS GET REDUCTIONS

Court Grants That Number

Cases

END OF REVIEW WORK

Court Will Take Up Cases Where Appeals Have Been Made From Assessment of Local Assessors

Judge Robinson Moncreux who heard the appeals made in the cases of a number of property owners who appealed from the decision of the local board of tax review, sustained the board in the majority of the cases where they made increases over the assessment made by the regular assessors. Reductions, however, were made in cases of nine property owners. Property of 126 taxers were increased by the board of review over increases made by the assessors in their new assessment.

Reductions were made in the cases of the following: B. Abramson from $15,000 to $14,000; J. H. Celly from $14,000 to $12,500; Jos. Hayman from $23,000 to $20,000; George D. Hopkins from $18,000 to $16,000; C. T. and W. H. Holmuth from $10,000 to $9,500; W. H. Holmuth from $8,000 to $7,500; Mahlon H. Janner from $7,500 to $6,750; L. R. Ben from $15,000 to $14,000.

The total reductions made amount to $10,250. Most of the increases voted by the board of review are on King Street and Rosemont property.

The total on the property exclusive of Rosemont will be in the neighborhood of $85,000. The new assessors increased partially all of the property and it was an increase over this assessment made by the review board.

Shops and stores appealed from the assessment made by the regular assessors are now pending in the corporation court. Others desiring to find their new assessment may do so by calling at office of the clerk of the court or no one is notified of an increase unless it was made by the local board of review.

GAZETTE'S Beginning with tomorrow, Saturday, CHILDREN'S January 15th, the COLUMN. GAZETTE has aranged to publish a column each week,

on Saturday, especially for children.
It will appeal interestingly to all children from six to sixty. At the same time, that it will be read for the story, it will be acquiring the 11-le ones with one of the greatest productions of English literature, put into simple prose for children by a master of style. The stories will be complete in almost every number in which they appear, but there is a sequence in the narrative which will lead the child to look for the next story. If the interest taken by the GAZETTE'S child-readers warrants it, the stories will be run off.
While appearing in the form of fairy tales, there is a moral that will be absorbed unconsciously by the child.
The sentiment is lofty, pure, and in accordance with the highest standard of morals, and should guide and lead the children of the family along paths that make for the finest of manhood and womanhood. The stories are not didactic—the moral to be deduced is not pointed out, but left for the reader to assimilate—which is the best method of teaching.

The stories are those related in Spenser's "Fairy Queen"—one of the leading English classics. The original is allegorical—but the stories are so ingeniously put into simple prose that they will be read for the adventure, which is exciting, wholesome, and of absorbing interest.

Edmund Spenser was born in London, in 1552, and died at Westminster in 1599. His influence on English men of letters is exceeded by no writer who has ever left his impress on a national literature. For three centuries the greatest names in English prose and poetry have freely confessed their debt to Spenser and acknowledged him their master.

The GAZETTE asks its women-readers to set aside a few moments on each Saturday night, to read to their little ones the story of that day.
It may be that they will themselves enjoy it. At any rate this is the beginning of a series of additions to the reading columns, by which the GA-ZETTE hopes to make the paper a family paper—looked for and read by the whole family—with features unique and interesting, and not to be found elsewhere.

HOW EDUCATION

Statistics have recently been compiled that tend-to bring to a mathematical basis the practical gain to the individual of an education. For instance, the statistician claims that among 150,000 uneducated children only one has a chance of achieving prominence. Given a high-school education, and his chance is multiplied 87 times. Elementary schooling comes somewhere between these two.
A college training increases this opportunity 800 times. These figures are startling, and worthy of very serious consideration. In the Spanish-American war, and in the recent world war, the United States soldier and sailor were without peers in efficiency. This was due, undoubtedly, to the fact that there was an educated brain behind every bayonet and every gun. Alexandria is fortunate in her schools and her educators. Her efficient superintendent and his staff are examples of that high and sincere devotion that is more often found in the teaching profession than in any other. Indeed, perhaps it is more needed, since the tangible emoluments are fewer. The teaching guild is one of the poorest paid professions in the United States today. This is rank injustice, and that it cannot but work harm to the country is indisputable.
Some day the GAZETTE is going to take up the question of the salaries of teachers in Alexandria. In the meantime let us think about it and prepare for improvement.

COMMISSION The city of
IN CHARLOTTEVILLE has recently adopted the commission form of municipal government. Galveston, Texas, was the first city in the United States to place the administration of its affairs in the hands of a commission. The abuses of the former ring and its losses for years, finally aroused the citizens to such a pitch of indignation that they revolted en-masse and elected the new commission officers by an unprecedented majority. The plan worked so well that other Texas cities adopted the same plan, and thence it spread all over the United States. It makes the administration of city affairs a business proposition and eliminates ward politics. The plan provides for the placing of all the administrative offices in the hands of five men, called commissioners, one of whom is accused by them to assume the title of mayor, although the functions of that office are divided up among the whole number. It is only a question of time when this form of municipal government will be almost universal in the cities of the country. Its superiority over the old form has been made manifest in every instance in which it has been tried. A city should be administered like a corporation. Responsibility should be fixed upon the heads of departments.

At least one expert of experience and proven efficiency should be among the five men, upon whom should devolve the title of mayor, and to whom should be allotted the major part of the executive duties. We shall observe the experience of our sister city of Charlottesville with much interest.

Rome, Jan. 14.—Two cardinals will be appointed from the United States

Archbishop P. J. Hayes, New York, also was mentioned as a possible choice.

The last American cardinal was named in 1911. It was stated the

AT AGE OF 77, HE NOW

WORKS HARD EVERY DAY

"Tanlac Made Me Feel Like I'm Starting Life Over Again." Says West Virginia Man — Couldn't Leave House When He Began Taking Tanlac.

"I am seventy-seven years old and two months ago I could hardly get out of the house, but now I am working every day and feel as fine as I did back in my fifties," said J. H. Mankin, of Springhill, W. Va.

"Last spring I was taken down with the 'flu' for six weeks which left me so weak I could hardly get out of bed in the morning, and before I finished dressing, I would get out of breath and have to stop and sit down. My appetite couldn't have been any poorer, my stomach was sour all the time and I was bothered with gas and bloating. I was the most discouraged and thought my age had got the best of me.

"I commenced taking Tanlac and my appetite came back and my food agreed with me and gave me strength and energy. From then on I picked up fast and now I have gained twelve pounds in weight and my friends all tell me I look better than I have in many years. I am working every day and am stronger than I was even before I had the 'flu'. Tanlac has simply made me feel like I'm starting life over again and nothing I can say for it is too good." Tanlac is sold in Alexandria by Edger Warfield, Jr., and all good drug stores.

National Roundup Started to Deport Ineligible Orientals

New York, Jan. 14.—A nationwide round up of all Oriental ineligible will be launched January 22.

This announcement was made late yesterday at Ellis Island by Leo Russell, chief deporting agent of the Immigration Service.

Sweeping orders for such a round up have been issued at Washington and a special force is to be assigned to the work.

E. M. Kline, of the Bureau of Immigration in the Department of Labor, will have command of the work and will start out from Washington January 22 with a staff of deporting agents for a tour of the South and West seeking "many Chinese and Japanese in the United States who have no lawful right to be here," Mr. Russell added.

The majority of the Orientals came as seamen and took advantage of their seamen's cards to come ashore upon arrival of their vessels at United States ports, deserting the ships and smuggling themselves into sections of the country remote from their landing places, the deporting agent added.

Mexicans illegally in the country will be rounded up for deportation by the Kline force, which will be under orders to hunt for them along the border, he said, adding that Orientals will be deported from San Francisco and Mexicans at border points.

THEFT INSURERS HIT

Companies Face Millions in Losses And May Change Policies

New York, Jan. 14.—Insurance companies writing policies covering burglary and theft faced a loss of more than $2,300,000 in 1919, and reports now in for last year indicate a condition that is worse, it was announced here yesterday following a meeting of executives of many of the large burglary insurance companies.

After the session an official of one company said it had been unanimously agreed that unless conditions improved the companies would put in to effect changes in the form of policies now issued. He did not define these changes. He added that conditions confronting the companies were not confined to any one locality, but existed all over the country.

WAGE REDUCTION HAILED AS DECLARATION OF WAR

Lawrence, Mass., Jan. 14.—The wage reduction ordered by textile manufacturers here was declared to be a declaration of war in a statement yesterday by Joseph Salerno, secretary of the local branch of the Amalgamated Textile Workers of America.

Regarding the announcement by President William M. Wood, of the American Woolen Company, and "the other textile barons" that wages would be cut 22 1-2 per cent., Secretary Salerno said: "We reply that we recognize the declaration of war; that the fight is on and that the pitched battles of 1912 and 1919 will be resumed at our earliest convenience; and that we will fight on until we are recognized as human beings whose rights to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness cannot be denied as 'unnecessary or extravagant' by an arbitrary industrial overlord."

The Amalgamated Textile Workers include only a small part of the 35,000 mill workers in this city.

DAD'S 'HOOCH' MAY COST LIFE OF 6 YEAR OLD SON

Chicago, Jan. 14.—Daniel McInerney, Jr., 6 years old, is in a serious condition at a hospital today because he sampled some of the moonshine whisky his father had bottled and stored in the basement.

An hour after he drank a small portion from one of the bottles yesterday his mother found him in convulsions. Officials at the hospital where he was taken reported the case to the police, and a raid was made on the McInerney home. Four barrels of mash and fifteen gallons of moonshine whisky were found in the cellar.

The police will turn Daniel McInerney, Sr., over to the Federal authorities today, to answer charges of violating the Volstead act.

COAL INDUSTRY CONTROL

Washington, Jan. 13.—A bill proposing Federal regulation for the coal industry and empowering the President to fix prices and profits in case of emergency or shortage was introduced yesterday by Chairman Calder, of the Senate Committee investigating the 1920 coal shortage.

The bill also would provide for regular publication of data on coal production costs to be assembled by the Federal Trade Commission, and authorize the President to deal in coal and take charge of its production and movement whenever he found "usual laws of trade in suspense."

The act proposes a licensing system for both operators and dealers and would impose heavy taxes on profits of sales by jobbers and brokers, the purpose being, Chairman Calder explained, "to drive coal in a direct channel from producers to consumers."

In collection of the sales and cost data from coal mines, the Trade Commission would make public individual or corporate names of producers only in case profiteering was disclosed by returns, or where a majority of the commissioners decided publication was necessary.

Every Possible Dollar

Cut From Inaugural

Washington, Jan. 14.—President-elect Harding's suggestion that his inauguration take place on the east portico of the Capitol was ratified formally yesterday by a joint Congressional committee in charge of the ceremonies. The "front porch" plan, members said, would be carried out literally and every possible dollar of expense eliminated. No spectator's stands, benches or even camp stools would be provided, they added.

Members of Congress, the Supreme Court and other officials will assemble on the Capitol portico. A small stand will be built for Senator Harding with a sound amplifying device over head. Letters recalling invitations sent to Governors, clubs and other individuals and organizations were sent out yesterday by the Citizens' Inaugural Committee, preparatory to a complete abandonment of the inaugural program.

President Wilson yesterday signed the joint resolution appropriating $50,000 for the Capitol expenses in connection with the inauguration, but under the decision of the Congressional committee the only portion of it which will be used will be for adjusting canceled contracts for building a stand at the Capitol and for engraved invitations.

Ice Famine Causes

Distress in Iceland.

London, Jan. 14.—For the first time on record there is an ice famine in Iceland. Cablegrams from Reykjavik, the capital of the country, appeal to Norway to rush shipments of ice to Iceland to save the herring harvest from putrefaction.

The famine is due to the mild winter and a dearth of a local supply.

The nearest supply of ice is said to be on Greenland's icy mountains, but transportation facilities are lacking.

Seven Perish in Wreck

Of U. S. Tug in Gulf

Galveston, Texas, Jan. 14.—The United States Engineering Department says Captain Anfour has been wrecked and it is believed seven men of the crew perished. The tug left Sabine Sunday morning for Galveston and nothing was heard of the craft until today, when her deck house and other wreckage were washed ashore on Galveston beach.

BAN UPON "SHIMMY"

LIFTED BY UNIVERSITY

Chicago, Jan. 14.—The ban against ultra-modern dances has been raised at Northwestern University. Roy C. Flickinger, dean of the faculty, announced yesterday. He said even the shimmy will be allowed to "a reasonable extent" at the annual sophomore party next Thursday.

Dean Flickinger said he was moved to this decision when he found that efforts against the latest dance steps had driven men and women students from university dances to public affairs at fashionable hotels along the North Shore. He said the university authorities "wished to get the student revelers back on the campus."

SMITH GIRL MEETS TESTS

Northampton, Mass., Jan. 14.—Results of the army mental tests recently taken by 207 members out of 425 of the senior class at Smith College show actual numerical scores ranging from C. plus to A.

Eighty-two per cent of the group made A 90 and 99 per cent, either A or B. The seniors made a median score of 155. Of the three members of the junior class elected to Phi Beta Kappa last year two who took the test were both in group A, while more than half of the others who stood in A or B had offices of importance in the student organizations.

EMPRESS' DEATH SEEMS NEAR

Dorn, Jan. 14.—Former Emperor William of Germany and others of the House of Dorn are convinced the death of former Empress Augusta Victoria is a matter of only a short time and are resigned to the inevitable. Dr. Haeiner, the physician attending the former empress, said yesterday that her condition was such that she might linger indefinitely, although it was becoming increasingly serious.

Every detail for her funeral has already been worked out. A Dorn florist has been ordered to keep constantly a stock of flowers on hand, and one of the employees of the estate has been given a list containing the names of friends and royalists to whom telegrams are to be sent when the end comes.

Former Crown Prince Frederick Wilhelm arrived here yesterday from Wieringen. He was unable to come during the Christmas holidays because the island of Wieringen was icebound.

"Crap Shooting" Grain Gambling Methods Charge

Topeka, Kans., Jan. 14.—Kansas farmers yesterday were urged by F. Dumont Smith, of Hutchinson, to form a calling organization similar to that used by the steel trust to market their grain.

Until they do this, Smith told delegates attending a meeting of the State board of agriculture, and "take steps to regulate the flow of grain to markets, their business would always be on the brink of ruin."

Smith, who is a prominent attorney, compared the board of trade operations with "crap shooting" and poker playing and urged that immediate steps be taken by the legislature to "eliminate the grain trading gambling evils."

Cigarettes Insurance

Against Wood Alcohol

Chicago, Jan. 14.—Cigarettes are insurance against effects of wood alcohol, Dr. Frederick C. Hammore, testified in Judge Brothers' court Thursday.

Dr. Hammore said that cigar smokers become deathly sick from the effects of wood alcohol, and nonsmokers often become blind, but smokers of cigarettes did not seem liable to the deleterious effects of the poison.

Poincare May be Next Premier of France, is Report

Jan. 14.—Every indication points to the return to power of President Raymond Poincare, as Premier to succeed Leygues.

French sentiment demands the formation of a government capable of leading the entente rather than trailing behind England and capable of enforcing its own foreign policy rather than accepting that of Lloyd George. From his position as a spectator, Poincare has fought ever since the armistice, for strict observance of the Versailles treaty and rigorous interpretation of its indemnity and reparation clauses. Millerand made concessions, Leygues made more concessions, and every concession was the occasion for a new outburst by the former President, and a new attack on the rapidly weakening government.

At Arago, who visited President Millerand in company with other leaders, during the afternoon, announced after the conference that the Millerand group had advised the election either of Poincare or of Poincare. He believed, he said, that the Millerand forces would not again serve a straw man of the Leygues type, but would install a man strong enough to inspire the confidence of both chambers and esteem abroad.

Will Washington Relics to Museum

Washington, Jan. 14.—The Washington relics owned by Miss Nannie Randolph Heth, President of the Southern Relief Society and daughter of the Confederate General Randolph Heth, who died here Jan. 10, will soon repose in the National Museum in this city, along with other mementoes of the first President. The collection once included the mace for which W. R. Hearst sued Miss Heth. Clarence R. Wilson is named as executor and trustee of the Heth estate. The relics are books, ornaments, small furniture and bric-a-brac. This will direct the Southern Relief Society the residuary legatee, deposit the relics in the museum.

DEMPSEY BALKS AT CUT IN GATE FOR BIG BOUT

Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 14.—Jack Kearns, manager for Jack Dempsey, said yesterday the match between Dempsey and Jess Willard in New York might be called off because of the recent ruling by the New York Boxing Commission fixing $15 as the highest admission fee to be charged at championship matches.

He said this meant that not more than $150,000 could be obtained if the bout was held at Madison Square Garden, the largest place available in New York at that time of the year.

"The sum is not enough to handle the match," he said.

Stickley is Promoted
Winchester, Va., Jan. 14.—Merced Stickley, Woodstock, Va., who has been connected with the Internal Revenue Bureau in Washington several years, has been promoted to head of the review division, income tax unit, according to word received by his friends here. Mr. Stickley, who is a son of the late Colonel E. E. Stickley, of Woodstock, is a graduate of the law school of the University of Virginia.

CONGRESS CHAPLAINS RESIGN

The chaplains of both the House and Senate submitted their resignations yesterday.

The Rev. Forrest J. Prettyman, who has served as chaplain of the Senate since the beginning of the Wilson administration, submitted his resignation, to take effect at the will of the Senate. He will go to Knoxville, Tenn., to become pastor of a church.

The Rev. Henry N. Couden, the blind chaplain of the House, formally tendered his resignation yesterday, to become effective when a successor is appointed. Previously the House had adopted a resolution providing for his retirement as chaplain emeritus with a salary of $1,500 a year. He has served in the office for 25 years.

CUBA'S LAWMAKING POWER MAY BECOME PARALYZED

Havana, Jan. 14.—Major-General Enoch Crowder, special representative of President Wilson, investigating conditions in Cuba, in a statement given out last night after referring to the failure of the electoral board and courts to function within the prescribed limit, declared:

"If these agencies continue to fail Cuba, in due course of time, will be confronted with an interim provincial and national administration, and after the first Monday in April next, with a total paralysis of the legislative power."

General Crowder until last night has maintained absolute silence ever since his arrival here on the cruiser Minnesota a week ago.

Babe Ruth is Hero

Of Turkish Harem
New York, Jan. 14.—In far-away Turkey the natives know all about Babe Ruth, and he is looked upon by them as one of the American idols, according to a story received here by the Knights of Columbus from a secretary in Constantinople.

One of the city officials happening into the K. C. hut at Constantinople saw several posters of the Lord of Swat and a statuette of Babe Ruth. Immediately he spread the news that Babe Ruth was a clay-god of the Americans.

"WHISKY BURGLARS" RAID SHIP AT NEWPORT NEWS

Newport News, Va., Jan. 14.—When the Spanish steamer Eolo prepared to sail yesterday with a cargo of coal it became known that she was raided by masked men, presumably shipyard workmen, a few nights ago, and hidden lighter by two barrels of good red "hooch." The matter has been reported to customs officials, and they in turn, have taken it up with the police.

The master of the ship reported that he found his steward bound and gagged and the liquor gone, when he arose in the morning. The ship was at the yard for repairs.

SUMMONS TAX BILL AUTHOR

Harding to Confer With Bacharach
On Sales Levy
Washington, Jan. 14.—President-elect Harding is taking great interest in the different tax proposals as a substitute for the excess profits tax.

which, he declared in his campaign, should be repealed, it is understood here that he desires to recommend in a definite way some new forms of taxation in his inaugural.

In order to learn something of the final sales tax bill sponsored by Representative Isaac Bacharach of the Ways and Means Committee, Mr. Harding has summoned the author of the bill to Marion. Mr. Bacharach left last night, convinced that he can show Mr. Harding that this is the best form of taxation to take the place of the excess profit tax. His bill places a tax of 1 per cent. on final sales, and it is estimated that it will yield about $900,000,000 yearly.

COULD EAT ANYTHING AFTER TAKING CHASCO-VIN

A Really Wonderful Tonic For Those Who Cannot Eat or Sleep and Who are Weak and Run-Down

"Before I took Chasco-Vin I was certainly in bad shape. I couldn't either eat or sleep and I was so weak and run-down and very nervous."

But after the fourth dose of Chasco-Vin I began to drink water (which I couldn't do before) and shortly following that my appetite returned and I ate a good meal. I have now taken two bottles of this wonderful tonic and I feel fine. I could eat anything. But I am going right ahead with another bottle or two to make it a good job because no one knows what I suffered.

I recommended Chasco-Vin to several others and they tell me it helped them too." C. H. Harmon, 295 Chestnut St., Camden, N. J.

The only Chasco-Vin sales agency in Alexandria is Edgar Warfield, Jr., corner King and Pitt streets. Don't put it off, get relief quickly.

WOMAN IS BLINDED WITH ACID BY THUG

Baltimore, Jan. 14.—Blinded by acid thrown into her eyes last night by a highwayman, Mrs. Annie Crow, 28 years old, held tightly to her purse and screamed for help. The robber became frightened and ran off.

Yesterday she was at her home suffering from burns, but physician says she will recover within a few days.

She was attacked at Covington and Heath streets. The man was walking along as if he intended passing her, and she paid no attention to him. As he was a few feet in front of her he raised his arms and something struck her in the face.

Instantly she was blinded and began to suffer severe pain in her eyes. Presence of mind caused her to tighten the grip on her purse as she screamed. A nearby door opened and Mrs. Margaret Beek, who had heard the screams, emerged. The man saw Mrs. Beek and ran off.

Leopard Cannot Change Spot:

Mr. Dodson, the "Live-Tone" Man, Tells the Treachery of Calomel.

Calomel loses you a day! You know what calomel is. It's mercury; quicksilver. Calomel is dangerous. It crashes into your bile like dynamite, cramping and sickening you. Calomel attacks the bones and should never be put into your system.

When you feel bilious, sluggish, constipated and all knocked out and believe you need a dose of dangerous calomel just remember that your druggist sells for a few cents a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic, which is entirely vegetable and pleasant to take and is a perfect substitute for calomel. It is guaranteed to strengthen your liver without stirring you up in any way, and can not salivate.

Don't take calomel! It can not be trusted any more than a leopard or wild-cat. Take Dodson's Liver Tonic which straightens you right up and makes you feel fine. Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless and doesn't gripe.

Mrs. Crow collapsed and Mrs. Beek assisted her into her home and called Dr. Edward Norris, who said acid had been used by the highwayman.

Calls for Help in Hebrew; Wife Shoots Robber

Norfolk, Va., Jan. 14.—Due to the fact that Simon Eastfan has the ability to speak two languages an attempted robbery of his grocery store at Scott and Salter streets was frustrated and one of the robbers was wounded by shots fired by Mrs. Eastfan when she had been summoned in Hebrew from a dining room in the rear of the store building. Neither was caught, however.

Two negroes entered about closing time while Eastfan was standing in front of his store. One of the two men displayed a revolver and ordered Eastfan to throw up his hands. The store proprietor complied, talking loudly in Hebrew, greatly to the amusement of the men.

One of the thieves stood near rear of the store where the cash register stood. As he was about to pass while the other went to the rear of the store, Eastfan saw the man and reached the register and fired a shot which had no effect on the robber.

The negro in the front of the store broke and ran as the first shot was fired but the negro in the rear "fell." A second shot was fired at him as he struggled to his feet and escaped on the arm of his companion.

BERNSTORFF SAYS HARDING WILL RESTORE PEACE

Kiel, Jan. 14.—President-elect Harding will endeavor to restore peace between the United States and Germany and seek to renew commerce. Count von Bernstorff predicted in a speech here yesterday.

Raw materials and credits, which would follow resumption of trade, would increase German production and end much of the country's difficulty, he said. He predicted that America will send capital into Russia as soon as capital is restored here, and that the way will be opened thereby for German immigration into Russia. He welcomed Harding's plan for an association of nations to replace the league.

MRS. BERGDOLL LOSES SUIT.

Philadelphia, Jan. 14.—A jury yesterday awarded Henry J. Scott $10,000 in attorneys' fees and expenses against Mrs. Emma C. Bergdoll, mother of Edwin and Grover C. Bergdoll, convicted draft dodgers. The lawyer had represented Mrs. Bergdoll in actions brought against her by the government. Her defense was that the fees were exorbitant.

BABIES OF FUTURE TO RIDE IN ELECTRIC CARRIAGES

Chicago, Jan. 14.—The demand for baby carriages has fallen off 20 per cent during the last year, so the manufacturers, who are holding their national convention here, have plenty of time to plan new and modern devices. A speaker at the meeting yesterday said that babies of the next few years are going to ride in electrically equipped cabs and the "very latest" convenience exhibited was a cab on which the hood can be raised or lowered by the slightest push on an automatic button.

House Studies Status Of "Damn Foolishness"

Washington, Jan. 14.—Is or is not "Damn Foolishness" parliamentary language?

Representative Blanton, of Texas, was commenting humorously on Harding's stand for a simple insurance.

"It's time to stop this damn foolishness," said Knutson, of Minnesota, Republican whip.

"I ask that those words be stricken out of the record," said Campbell, of Kansas.

"I object," said Banton. "They are consistent with the rest of the gentleman's speech."

BANK CASHIER SUICIDE

IN THE COURT HOUSE
Dixon, Ill., Jan. 14.—Elmer J. Countryman, petitioner in bankruptcy proceedings involving liabilities of $610,000 and charged in thirteen indictments yesterday with forgery, embezzlement and larceny, killed himself yesterday with a revolver in the 1st County Court House.

Countryman, former cashier of the Union State Bank here and in 1916 unsuccessful candidate on the Progressive ticket for County Treasurer, had just concluded a conference with Mrs. Countryman and his attorney, Court was in session and Judge Harry Edwards was awaiting his appearance to enter a plea of guilty or not guilty to the charges.

His death, it is said, will cost creditors of the Union State Bank $30,000. The sum represents claims they will be unable to collect because Countryman was the only person who had knowledge of the transactions and could supply the evidence to collect them.

Countryman had lived in Dixon fifteen years. He was 48 years old.

WADE, SENTENCED TO DEATH, APPEALS

Bridgeport, Conn., Jan. 14.—Notice of appeal was filed with the clerk of superior court here yesterday by attorneys for Elwood B. Wade, who earlier in the day was sentenced to be hanged on May 29 for the murder of George E. Nott in Nott's home in this city on August 20 last. The grounds were not announced.

The filing of intention to appeal takes the case to the State Supreme court of errors and suspends execution of the sentence until the supreme court has passed upon it.

Wade was one of the coolest persons in the courtroom yesterday when sentence was pronounced. Before the court opened he smilingly commented on the lessened attendance. Asked if he had anything to say, he calmly replied:

"No, sir." And after the sentence was pronounced he said, "Thank you" then reached for his hat and overcoat.

Wade was taken to the Wethersfield prison where, according to the deputy sheriffs that accompanied him, he maintained his calm demeanor. Wade left here without seeing his young wife, who is in a hospital suffering from a nervous breakdown.

State's Attorney Homer S. Cummings announced that Mrs. Nott and John E. Johnston, both of whom are indicted as co-murders for which Wade was convicted, will be placed on trial during the February term of court.

Worth Saying.

The features of this girl portray the finest type of Polish childhood. She now lies engulfed in hunger and disease and all their attendant miseries. Relief already administered by American has preserved her beauty and freshness, albeit her eyes betray the suffering she has seen. And literally millions in her own and adjacent countries still have no one to look to but America as another whiter of horrors closes in upon them. To the end that their prayer may not go unanswered, eight leading American relief organizations have joined together in a joint appeal in behalf of Europe's suffering children. They are the American Relief Administration, the American Red Cross, the American Friends' Relief Committee (Quakers), the Jewish Joint Distribution Committee, the Federal Trenches of Christ in America, the Knights of Columbus, the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A.

WHAT YOU NEED IS RED BLOOD

Men, Women and Children Who Are Pale and Run Down Need Help

TRY PEPITO-MANGAN

It Builds Rich Red Blood Which Restores Vitality

So often growing children look pale and wan. They play too hard and use up all their energy. Men and women are the same. They often work too hard.

The blood becomes clogged with waste matter. There are not enough red corpuscles. A condition of anemia (or bloodlessness) develops.

Your blood is half starved. It needs the nourishing ingredients in Pepto-Mangan to make it rich and red.

Begin taking Pepto-Mangan today. In a little while you'll see an improvement in color and appetite and energy.

Pepto-Mangan is sold in liquid and tablet form. Both have the same ingredients. Take either kind you prefer. But be sure you get the genuine Pepto-Mangan—"Gude's". The full name, "Gude's Pepto-Mangan," should be on the package. —Adv.
